Exhibition of Highest Class Given by Forepaugh-Sells Yesterday.

The time-wern phrase, "When you have seen one circus, you have seen them all," does not apply to the exhibition of the Forepaugh-Sells combination, which was witnessed here yesterlay afternoon and overlant, by thousands of deligated spectators. The Forepaugh-Sells circus contains many new features, and in one number returns to the good old days of the one ring circus. This latter is the leaping act, in which a decean or more acrossis and as many clowns, run down the spring board and then turn two, and sometimes three, somersaults over a herd of elephants.
